Attention
Matriarchs/Patriarchs/Heads-of-families:

Please discuss with your family about your Escort shift for this semester. Email Escort Project Head (Mallory: majohn@wm.edu) by WEDNESDAY with your top few choices so she can create the schedule. Larger families - please sign up for more than one shift and note that in your email.

We want to get Escort up and running as soon as possible. Thank you!

• SERVICE SPOTLIGHT •

Get involved in a new service organization on campus that is completely founded by and run by WM students! "Students Serve" is a national 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that provides community service grants to innovative college students across the country. Through self-designed projects, students are able to apply the knowledge that they are acquiring in school to solve problems in their communities. The grants enrich the academic experience of the students who are implementing the service-learning projects and create meaningful changes in communities." Email Angela Perkey for more info (aperkey)
